Sir:

This paper is a request for issuance of a Certificate of Correction under 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.322 and 1.323.

No fee is required for such a request under Rule 322, i.e., where the mistake is by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. A fee is required under Rule 323, i.e., where the mistake is applicant's. Since it is believed that a Certificate of Correction would be issued to correct the Patent Office's mistakes and that no additional expenses would be incurred by the PTO to simultaneously

CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.8

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being deposited with the United States Postal Service as first class mail, postage prepaid, in an envelope addressed to Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450 on the 14th day of May, 2003.

correct Applicants' mistakes, no fee has been enclosed. However, if the PTO insists in charging a fee under 37 C.F.R. § 1.323 to correct both the PTO's and Applicants' mistakes, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge $100.00 to Deposit Account No. 50-0836 for the fee under 37 C.F.R. § 1.20(a). The Commissioner is also authorized to charge any addition fee or credit any overpayment in connection with this request to Deposit Account No. 50-0836.

The PTO made an error at column 6, line 11, wherein Applicants presented the term "cm⁻¹" (see page 11, line 4, of the specification) and the PTO printed "cm ³¹ 1." This error causes confusion and should be corrected.

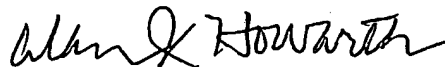

The PTO also made mistakes in claims 5 and 7. In claim 5, the PTO erroneously included the phrase "composition of matter of claim 3 wherein said hydrophobic agent is" when it was printed in the patent. Claim 5 (originally, claim 6) was amended during prosecution in a paper filed November 15, 2000. Applicants correctly set out the amendment of the claim. Therefore, the error was by the PTO. In claim 7 (originally, claim 10), the PTO misspelled the term "glycochenodeoxycholic." Claim 7 was also amended in the paper filed November 15, 2000, wherein the term was spelled correctly. Therefore, the mistake in claim 7 was also caused by the PTO.

Claim 5 is so garbled by the presence of the PTO's error that the claim cannot be properly understood without correction. Therefore, a Certificate of Correction should be issued.

Applicants made errors in the Abstract and in misspelling "and" at column 6, line 11. Correction of these errors is also requested. These errors are of a clerical nature, or of a typographical nature, or of minor character. Further, correction of such errors would not constitute new matter or require reexamination. It is respectfully requested that the fee required for correction of mistakes by Applicants be waived in view of the mistakes by the PTO that will be corrected at the same time.

DATED this 14th day of May, 2003.

Respectfully submitted,

Alan J. Howarth, Ph.D.
